- Row 70 to 80: Light blue
- Row 81 to 90: Medium blue
- Row 91 to 100: Dark blue
- Row 101 to 110: Purple
- Row 111 to 120: Orange
- Row 121 to 130: Yellow

Each cell contains a unique character pattern, such as letters (Q, J, A, etc.), symbols (triangles, crosses, etc.), or numbers. The patterns show a clear vertical gradient across the rows, with each row's patterns being distinct from the others.
