The figure displays a 20x50 grid of small plots, each showing a complex pattern of black and white pixels. The rows are labeled 220, 230, 240, 250, 260, 270, and 280. The columns are labeled 110, 120, 130, 140, and 150. Each plot represents a snapshot of a system's state at a specific time and space coordinate. The patterns evolve from simple, regular structures to highly complex, chaotic ones as time progresses.
